Thank you for sharing (Insert summary of disclosure), I would like to reassure you that you have a range of options and support services are available to you.

You may also wish to access support from the local sexual assault referral centre \(SARC\) who will consider your physical and emotional health needs, this may include a forensic exam, if you are unsure about whether to report to the police, they can support you through the process.

Alternatively, if you have decided you do not wish to report to the police you can access support on Campus from Living Without Abuse, who can assist you in accessing the local sexual health clinic and provide emotional support.

If the perpetrator is another member of the university community you can also report the incident to University security on 01509 222141, should you wish to discuss support available from the university you can book an appointment here. This appointment is with a DAI adviser who will also discuss ways to help you feel safe.

You may self-refer to specialist female charity Jasmine house or to look at some self-help information.

Further information is available on our online reporting tool website.

Kind regards
